J-1 ACADEMIC TRAINING FOR NON-DEGREE CERTIFICATE STUDENTS

J-1 Non-Degree Students participating in certificate programs at UCLA may have the opportunity to engage in paid or unpaid employment anywhere in the U.S. which is directly related to their major field of study, after completion of their studies, provided certain requirements are met. Such employment is called ‘Academic Training’ and is authorized in writing by a J-1 Advisor at UCLA.

Types of Academic Training
1. Paid or Unpaid Academic training may be taken only after successful completion of the student’s program.

Restrictions
1. Non-Degree Students who withdraw from their program or fail to maintain satisfactory progress towards the completion of their program are not eligible for Academic Training.
2. Total stay in the U.S. (program duration combined with Academic Training) must not exceed 2 years.
3. Duration of Academic Training: up to 12 months or the duration of the student's program; whichever is less (e.g. Students participating in a 3 month program are only allowed 3 months of academic training).
4. Academic Training must start within 30 days after the program completion date.
5. Minimum of 20 hours of training per week required.
6. Deadline: apply for academic training at least two weeks before the expiration of your DS-2019.
7. Please allow 10 working days to process your application.

Procedure to Obtain Authorization
1. Obtain a job offer letter on company letterhead setting forth:
   a. a description of the training including: organization name, address of the site, name of supervisor, number of hours per week, and dates of the training.
2. Obtain a letter from your program coordinator, on University letterhead, (see sample on back) setting forth:
   a. the goals and objectives of the specific training
   b. a description of the training including: organization name, address of the site, name of supervisor, number of hours per week, and dates of the training.
   c. how the training relates to your academic program; and
   d. why it is an integral or critical part of your academic program.
3. Provide evidence of financial support that will cover living expenses.
4. Provide proof of health insurance.
5. Pay the $40 Post-Graduate SEVIS User Fee through the DCISS website and print “Payment History” screen to be submitted with your documents.
March, 10, 20XX

Dr. Shideh Hanassab
Responsible Officer, Exchange Visitor Program P-1-00181
Dashew Center for Office of International Students and Scholars (DCISS)
106 Bradley International Hall
Campus 137907

Dear Dr. Hanassab:

Joe A. Bruin is seeking an opportunity to obtain needed practical experience in his/her specialized field of study. Such employment would significantly supplement Joe A. Bruin's academic and theoretical training in the field of Marketing Analysis and Systems Design.

Joe A. Bruin is currently pursuing his/her academic program under (indicate name of academic department, name of program, and program objectives). (S)He has completed all of the program requirements.

Joe A. Bruin's proposed training is in the area of market analysis and systems design and/or network flows and combinatorial programming of computer-based systems and financial accounting. As a Marketing Analyst, he/she will be trained in the development of new and improved system approaches for the solution of specific problems in the organizing and processing of market analysis data. Under Ms. Lowell House’s supervision, Joe A. Bruin will also assist in the area of financial planning and analysis. Such training would be an integral part of Joe. A. Bruin's course of study and would supplement his theoretical training.

Joe A. Bruin's will be working XX hours/week at MIS & Systems Analysis Inc., 10000 N. Bruin Walk, Los Angeles, CA 99999. His immediate supervisor will be Ms. Lowell House.

I highly recommend that Joe A. Bruin be granted permission to engage in this training for _____ months (between 1 and 3) beginning April 1, 20XX. Your favorable consideration of his application will be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Suzy Q. Gradhelper
Academic Advisor