

LUNCH AROUND THE WORLD

Learn About the World Through FOOD!

UCLA's Dashew Center for International Students and Scholars has teamed up with ethnic restaurants in Westwood to provide a unique cultural experience for students, scholars, and community members.

Each month a participating restaurant will host up to 20 students and scholars for lunch. They will provide you with a full, traditional meal from their ethnicity and explain its origins and how it relates to their culture.

How Do I Register?

- *Tickets may be purchased for $5 from Kelley or Jennie at the Dashew Center.
- *Tickets go on sale at least 2 weeks before the restaurant visit and are sold first-come, first-serve.
