
Preparing the application to the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Service (USCIS)
What is the EAD?

- The Employment Authorization Document (EAD) is an employment benefit available to J-2 dependents.

You must be present in the U.S. to apply for the EAD. It is advisable to apply at least 2-3 months after entering the U.S. on a J-2 visa.

2. Prepare and mail your application materials
Allow approximately 1 week to gather and organize your materials for mailing.

Average processing time at the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) is 3 -6 months.
Step 1:

Detailed Overview of Required Documentation
Passport Photos

- Passport Photo Requirements The photos required for the EAD application must meet the specifications of U.S. style passport photos. - Write your name and I-94 number lightly on the back of each photo.
- Professional Photography - USCIS has been examining passport photos more strictly. The DCISS recommends J-2 dependents have their photos taken professionally.   - In the memo line, write your SEVIS ID number and name, if different than the name on the check.
- Money orders can be purchased at banks, post office, and some grocery stores. Make sure a name and address are printed or written on the money order.
- For Credit Card payment, submit form G-1450, authorizing payment of $410. Only credit cards linked to U.S. billing addresses are accepted.

The I-765 fee is currently $410. If you have questions about when to file and the fee associated at that time, please see a DCI S advisor.

Money orders and cashier checks should include the same information as a personal check.

Financial Information Letter

Letter Itemizing Family Expenses

- USCIS wants to ensure the employment of a J-2 dependent is for customary recreational and cultural activities; therefore they require a work permission letter showing the J-1 has sufficient funding for the length of their program.

  ✓ If your J-2 status is valid for more than one year, add the following statement to the letter: "I would like to request employment until the end date of my DS-2019 which is include your actual end date here, under federal regulations 8 CFR274a.12(a) and (c)."

*If your address on the I-765 is NOT in California, speak with an advisor at DCISS. The EAD application may need to be mailed to a different address.
Step 3:

Receive the Employment Authorization Document (EAD)
I-797 Notice of Action

You should receive the notice by mail within 2-4 weeks after mailing the EAD application to USCIS.

The I-797 is very important. If you lose the receipt, there is no way to replace it.

The I-797 is necessary if you want to: 1) inquire about the status of your EAD application

- Receipt Number - The case number for the EAD application at USCIS. Check the status of the case on the USCIS web site.
- Received Date - Date when USCIS begins processing the application. (It may not be the actual date the application was received, but when the case was entered into the system.)
- Address Information - Verify the name and address on the I-765 receipt notice. If incorrect, contact a DCISS advisor immediately.
- Contacting USCIS - If you have any problems or questions with the EAD application, check in with a DCISS advisor before calling the USCIS Customer Service.
USCIS Issues & Tracking
Your Case

Case Status Updates

• DCISS strongly recommends that you sign up for an account at https://www.uscis.gov. This can allow you to receive automatic updates and monitor your case. Click “Check Your Case Status” and then select “Sign Up”.

General Case Tracking:

• If you don’t sign up for an account, you can still track your case using the “Check Your Case Status” Tool
USCIS Issues & Tracking
Your Case

Address Changes:

• If your address changes, you can update it online here. Keep in mind that address changes can take 10 business days to process and could jeopardize your EAD delivery. We recommend keeping the same address for your entire EAD processing, if possible.

Case Inquiries:

• You can submit inquiries about your case using the Case Inquiry tools if you don’t receive your receipt or other notifications, or if your EAD has been pending for more than 75 days.
Application Problems- RFE or Rejection or Denial

RFE- If there is a problem with your application, the USCIS may send you a notice by mail called a “Request for Evidence (RFE).” An RFE does not mean that your application has been rejected. It means that you need to send in additional documents before your EAD can be issued.
  - Getting an RFE will delay the processing of your application
  - You must respond by the due date on the notice

Rejection or Denial- In some cases, if too many items are missing from your application or if the USCIS determines you are not eligible for a J-2 EAD, the USCIS will return the entire application to you or they may deny the application. If this happens, contact a DCISS adviser to discuss next steps.

Feel free to contact DCISS if you receive an RFE, rejection, or denial.

To avoid delays, review your application materials for completeness and sign all the forms before mailing them to the USCIS.
The Employment Authorization Document (EAD)

• Official approval of work authorization in the United States.
• Review card to make sure the information is accurate. If not, see an advisor at DCISS.
• Present your EAD to employers as a form of work authorization.
• Only eligible to work the dates issued on the card.
Communication from USCIS
(a.k.a. Beware of Scams !)

- While your EAD application is pending, you may receive text message, email, and paper letter updates from USCIS regarding the status of your application.

USCIS will never contact you by phone regarding the status of your EAD application.

- If you receive a phone call from a person claiming to work for USCIS or any other government agency, do not provide your personal information to them. Note the person’s name and phone number and contact DCISS before responding.
General Tips for Travelers

• Be sure to have ALL necessary documents for travel and re-entry to the US.
• Do not enter the U.S. in a status other than J-2 unless willing to give up the EAD and other benefits associated with J-2 status.
• Consult a DCISS advisor if your Form DS-2019 has expired or will expire within 30 days of your expected return to the U.S.

Travel Before EAD Card is received

• Must be in the U.S. to apply for the EAD.
• There are increased risks of traveling outside of the U.S. while your EAD application is pending at USCIS. Please consult with a DCISS J-1 advisor before planning international travel.
Renewal of EAD

• You can only apply for a new EAD if the J-1’s program in the U.S. has been extended and/or if the EAD dates are shorter than the DS-2019 end date.

• The J-2 can apply for a new EAD authorization up to 180 days before the current EAD expires.

• If you have future plans in the U.S., please make sure the J-1 works with their department 5-6 months prior to the DS-2019 end date to extend the program in a timely manner.

• After reapplying, it may take 3-6 months to receive the new EAD.

• To apply for the renewal of the EAD, on the I-765, check “Renewal of my permission to accept employment (attach a copy of your previous EAD)” and answer “Yes” to question 12. You will then also need to complete and sign PART 6, Additional Information, pg. 7 question 4a-4d.
