SCHOLARS’ INTERESTS BY TYPE OF DASHEW CENTER PROGRAM, EVENT, OR ACTIVITY

- Social events
- Language and culture support
- Health and wellness workshops
- Skill-building workshops

KEY OBSERVATIONS

- 73% of international scholars participate in departmental or on-campus workshops, activities, or events, at least once per year, and nearly half of them participate at least once a month.
- Nearly 60% of international scholars participate in Dashew Center activities at least once a year, and a quarter of them participate at least once a month.
- More than 90% of international scholars have an interest in participating in Dashew Center programs, and they are mostly interested in activities that offer social connection or language and culture support.
- To enhance engagement opportunities, the Dashew Center should consider targeting social, language, and culture support programs toward scholars. (Note: Dashew Center provided two additional programs since this survey was administered that fit in these categories i.e. JPATH and Scholar Lunch Hour).
